JPM Teacher Empowerment Cell-A Best Practice of IQAC

Report on State-Level Workshop on Academic Publishing

A State level workshop on Academic Publishing was organized by the JPM Teacher Empowerment Cell under the auspices of IQAC on 16th April 2021. Ms. Akhila Treesa Cyriac, Asst. Professor, Department of Commerce welcomed and Prof. Rosanna Davis, Department of English presided over the meeting. The workshop was inaugurated by Rev.Fr. Abraham Panikulangara CST, Manager, JPM Educational Institutions. The resource person of the workshop was Mr. Jobin Jose, Librarian, Marian College Kuttikkanam (Autonomous).

The Technical session was very informative and useful. The resource person introduced the major issues and hidden challenges in the field of academic publishing. The session included detailed discussion on the software's for literature search like 'Publish or perish', reference management software like 'Mendley' and plagiarism check softwares like 'turnitin'. The workshop also enabled the participants to access and use 'Mendley' software for reference and citation in research and dissertation works. The resource person also highlighted the importance of selecting the right journals which are indexed in SCOPUS and Web of Science. The session also gave insights on the fraudulent activities that are prevalent in the academic publishing sector. The session was really interactive and all the participants enthusiastically participated in the workshop. At the end of the session, Ms.Theertha, Librarian, JPM Arts and Science College introduced the procedure for activating N-List account for the faculties which opens a wide horizon of knowledge through e-resources easily accessible to the faculty and students of the institution and proposed vote of thanks. The workshop commenced at 10 am and ended by 3pm in College Conference Hall. Thirty five teachers participated in the programme.
