JPM TEACHER EMPOWERMENT CELL

FACULTY DEVELOPMENT PROGRAMME

JPM Teacher Empowerment Cell in association with Department of Social Work conducted Faculty Development Programme on the topic 'Teaching and Mentoring during Covid -19' from 6th August 2021 to 8th August 2021 on Google Meet, each day at 12.30pm. The inaugural session was presided over by Dr. V.V. Georgekutty, Principal. The FDP was inaugurated by Rev. Fr. Abraham Panikulangara, Manager of the College. Mr. Ajesh P Joseph, School of Social Work, Marian College Kuttikkanam (Autonomous) was the resource person for the three days.

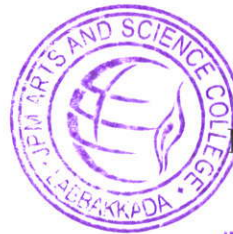

On the first day of the programme (06.10.2021) the resource person presented with examples the basic terms such as; mentoring, process and skills in mentoring, mentee-mentor relationship, etc. Participants were given a training in preparing a Mentoring Diary also. The Diary is used to record guidance given to the mentees.

On the second day (07.10.2021) the session consisted of discussions on topics such as; teaching and learning through online platforms, online resources for learning, blended learning, etc. At the end of the session the participants acquired knowledge to prepare a course plan for their subject incorporating online and blended learning techniques.

On the last day of the programme (08.10.2021) the resource person dealt with concepts like content-based teaching, outcome-based teaching, assurance of learning, and new horizons of learning such as e-pg pathshala, research gate, academia.edu, pubmed, sci-hub, etc. At the end of the session participants evaluated their own teaching style. They identified the changes needed in mentoring and coaching students in the future.

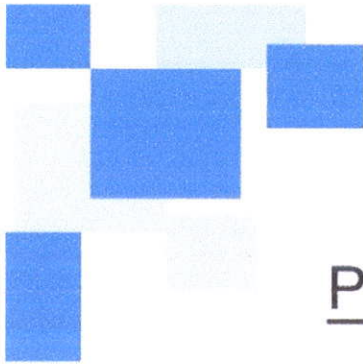

Certificates were distributed to all participants. Rev. Fr. Dr. Tony Adukuzhiyil, Vice Principal proposed vote of thanks. The programme ended on 08.9.2021 at 2.15pm.
